A half day's training programme for parents, carers, professionals and other interested individuals.

Informative, interactive and interesting this training programme is delivered by professionally qualified and experienced trainers from Autism Hampshire who have a wealth of autism knowledge. They are ably assisted by an Expert by Experience.

Course Outline:

The specific learning objectives for the half day training course are as follows-

The attendee will be able to:

- Outline some differences in the way in which people on the autism spectrum think and link to brain theories
- Examine some positive and negative ways this can affect the person
- Explore some simple ways of supporting areas of difficulty

Quotes from attendees at recent courses:

"I enjoyed the style and delivery - learning new interesting facts about autism despite 22 years in LD"

"What we received today in knowledge is excellent and appropriate"

"Best training I have ever attended"
